Issue #24-Feb. 26

5th Grade Poets

February is Black History Month and some of our 5th grade students wrote some poems about slavery and freedom. We will have a couple more poems in next week's newsletter.

Run Away Slave

By: Jomar Bailey

Running from Dogs
Slave owners
Bullets
Eating, resting
Swimming, crossing
To Canada and then FREEDOM!

Slavery

By: Aleigha Dillingham

It's hard out here,
Working for people.
When you try to run away
You get caught and whipped.
You ain't got no destiny,
That's what's bad about it.

But one day
I'm going to be free.
I'm going to have my own house
And my whole family back with me.

We won't have to be whipped;
We'll be free!
We'll stand up for ourselves
And each other.
